

AMOR VERITATIS - LOVE OF TRUTH 🗨️

The Faculty of Philosophy and Religious Studies develops and improves philosophical studies for the purpose of a deeper understanding of man and his life, and promotes reflection and dialogue. The Faculty develops the study of religious science as a science of religions and religious problems in order to better understand and overcome them into today's world.

FACULTY OF PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGIOUS STUDIES 🏛️

- within the humanities, science promotes the study of philosophy with all its periods and branches, and with good foundations in ancient philosophy, a particularly strong side of the study is the study, research and exposition of medieval, scholastic, neo-scholastic and personalist philosophy,
- systematically connects the field of philosophy with the interdisciplinary field of religious sciences, which in a special way includes the exposition of Arabic and Jewish and Indian and Chinese philosophy,
- a unique study in Croatia that deals with religious issues with the aim of better mutual understanding in a multicultural and multi-religious society such as Croatia,
- studies the relationship between science and faith and develops a dialogue between them by fostering a discourse of spirituality and worldliness.

SCIENTIFIC (CROATIAN AND INTERNATIONAL) SYMPOSIUMS AND CONFERENCES 📢

There are many scientific experts, domestic and foreign, who regularly present at symposia organized by FFRZ at the Faculty. Students can thus, first hand, hear current events in many scientific fields and discover and develop their other interests (in addition to philosophy and religious studies). The faculty encourages students to also, with their student presentations, get involved in those areas and topics of symposia that are of interest to them.

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION 🌐

The Commission for International Cooperation at the Faculty of Philosophy and Religious Studies of the University of Zagreb is in charge of encouraging, establishing and developing FFRZ cooperation in a foreign context, either at the level of students or at the level of teacher mobility.

Integration of faculties of philosophy and religious sciences in EU higher education network enables participation in platforms that encourage intensive international activity of the institution, the international presence of teachers and students with the visibility of our activities in the European milieu of the best schools.
